

WINTON COUNTRY CLUB THE PATRIOT

May 2015

WELCOME, KELLY CROVO!

In April 2015, Up to Par Management named Kelly Crovo general manager of Winton Country Club. Crovo, who was most recently the general manager and head PGA professional at Ole Monterey Golf Club in Roanoke, Va., began his duties on April 28.

"I am proud and honored to become the newest member of the Up to Par team at Winton Country Club," said Crovo. "We are excited to make this golf and swim season fun for everyone. I am looking forward to meeting everyone."

With more than 20 years experience, Crovo has worked in all aspects of the industry including, retail, food and beverage, instruction and accounting, and has served as the Southern Chapter Tournament Chairman for the Middle Atlantic Section of the PGA since 2008.

"Kelly is the ideal candidate to lead our operations at Winton Country Club," said Sean Taylor, chief executive officer of Up to Par Management, LLC, which manages Winton Country Club. "He is a PGA leader with strong analytic skills and experience driving revenue which will be an immense asset to us. We look forward to seeing the positive impact he will make at Winton."

After earning a bachelor of arts in accounting from Belmont Abbey College in North Carolina, Crovo spent the first three years of his career in Washington, D.C. as a senior accountant for Grant Thornton. From there, he spent the next four years as an assistant professional at Shenandoah Valley Golf Club and Goose Creek Golf Club, and then five years as head professional at The Waterfront Country Club.

In 2004, Crovo was appointed general manager and head PGA professional at Ole Monterey Golf Club, an 18-hole daily fee course that annually averages 29,000 rounds and 50 tournaments. His notable accomplishments include implementing a cloud-based tee sheet and point of sale system that increased revenue; increasing non-golf revenue; and improving tournament participation and member engagement.
